NO WARNING WAS GIVEN

Page Cables Facts on Arabic Loss.

ACTION WILL BE TAKEN

Diplomatic Relations With Germany May Be Broken.

Washington, Aug. 23.—That the Arabic was torpedoed without warning was the positive assertion made in a cable message received at the state department from Walter H. Page, the American ambassador in London.

This information had been received previously by the department from the United States vice consul at Queenstown and the message from Ambassador Page emphasized its truth.

The affidavit of passengers of the Arabic as to the circumstances of the sinking, which Ambassador Page was supposed to have cabled from London, have not reached the state department. It was said at the department that Secretary Lansing had given orders such messages should be given to the press as soon as received.

At the time of the sending of the last note to Germany on the sinking of the Lusitania the president and his cabinet gave careful consideration to the course that ought to be followed in the event that there was a repetition of what the note described as "deliberately unfriendly" acts.

Policy Determined Upon.

It was then determined that if another merchant steamer should be sunk by a German submarine without warning and the lives of American citizens should be lost thereby diplomatic relations should be broken with Germany and that other steps should be taken to put the United States in a position to engage in a policy of reprisal or uphold the rights of the United States and its citizens on the high seas.

What these steps will be, should it be found necessary to dismiss Count von Bernstorff and recall Mr. Gerard, were outlined by a high official of the administration. He said they would be generally along the following lines:

First—Congress might be called in extra session, but if the immediate situation was not critical enough for that the president would wait the regular session in December and then would ask personally for legislative authority to organize a standing army of 200,000 men, with provision to increase it to a war footing of 600,000 and in addition to establish a large reserve army.

Second—Congress might be urged by the president to make a large increase in the fleet, the increase to consist of probably as many as six dreadnoughts, many submarines of the seagoing class, to appropriate heavily for aeroplanes and dirigibles for both the army and the navy and to provide scout cruisers, destroyers and transports commensurate to the increase in the battleship force.

Third—A plan already formulated for a system of increasing the coast defenses would be laid before congress for approval and the appropriation of the money necessary to carry it into effect.

Fourth—Congress might be asked for appropriations to increase the capacities of the United States ordnance and ammunition plants and the adoption of measures to encourage private munition factories to extend their facilities in accordance with suggestions of Brigadier General Crozier, the chief of the ordnance department of the army.

President Wilson is represented as being fully aware that a break in diplomatic intercourse between the two governments may lead to even more serious misunderstandings and possibly to war.

According to the representations made of the attitude of the administration it will be prepared to back up its anger with Germany by a policy that will amount to giving moral support to the allies.

The administration is accredited with an intention to ask congress to appropriate $5,000,000,000 to carry out the plans for national defense which the president will propose.

Oil Price Boosted Again.

Independence, Kan., Aug. 22.—Another advance in the price of crude oil, this time 10 cents a barrel, was ordered from the general offices of the Prairie Oil and Gas company here. The new price is 75 cents, an increase of 35 cents a barrel in twenty days.

REGINALD M'KENNA.

Confers With French Minister of Finance.

ALLIES AGREE ON EXCHANGE

Ribot and McKenna Decide on Financial Matters.

Paris, Aug. 23.—Alexandre Ribot, the French minister of finance, and Reginald McKenna, the British chancellor of the exchequer, conferred at Bologne-Sur-Mer. They discussed and agreed upon concerted action with regard to exchange with the United States and other financial questions affecting the allies.

Another meeting will be held at London shortly at which Pierre L. Bark, the Russian finance minister, will be present.

WATTERSON WARNS PRESIDENT WILSON

Says People Will Not Have Honor of Nation Flouted.

Louisville, Aug. 23.—Under the heading, "God Hates a Coward," Henry Watterson says editorially:

"That before it acts the government should possess itself of all needful information touching the submarine attack upon the Arabic is right enough, but the president should beware lest he put too great a strain upon the people's patience and awaken doubt of his intentions and distrust of his character in the popular mind.

"There is such a thing as excess of deliberation. There is also such a thing as the appearance of vacillation almost as hurtful as vacillation outright. The issue between the United States and Germany made a very pretty quarrel as it stood. This latest outrage is but an intensifying detail. The Washington dispatches, which affect to speak for the administration, carry an apologetic tone that grates harshly upon the public sensibility.

"Look out, Mr. President. You have yet to make your calling and election sure. The people want to trust you. They want to follow your lead. They have been very wholehearted and patient, but they will not have the dignity and honor of the nation put in commission, still less flouted, while God himself, as all of us know, hates a coward."

BAN ON GERMAN TOYS IS TILTED.

New York, Aug. 23.—American importers of German toys regarded the prospect of obtaining these goods from Germany as more hopeful owing to a recent announcement from London that a shipment of $500,000 worth of such goods would be allowed to come through from Rotterdam.

American buyers who have visited the German toy manufacturers this year say that Germany is still making enough toys to supply the American demand.

SPAIN ENTERS A PROTEST

Madrid Takes Action Against Torpedoing of Two Steamers.

Madrid, Aug. 23.—The Spanish government has protested to Germany against the torpedoing of two Spanish steamers, the Perla Castillo and the Isidoro, in the North sea.

The German ambassador at Madrid has written a private letter to the foreign minister expressing regret.

GERMAN FLEET AT RIGA BAY REPULSED WITH SERIOUS LOSS

(By United Press)

Petrograd, Aug. 23.—An official report of the Riga naval battle says the British submarine sank one of the best German dreadnoughts and the Russians sank two German cruisers and eight torpedo boats. It is admitted that the Russian gunboat Sivutsh was set on fire and sunk after the battle. Yesterday in the Duma it was announced that the Russians sank the German dreadnaught Moltke, three German cruisers, and seven torpedo boats.

GERMANY MAY DENY HAVING TORPEDOED THE ARABIC

By Carl W. Ackerman, United Press Correspondent
Copyright 1915, by U. P.
Copyright in Great Britain

Berlin, August 23.—There is doubt as to whether a German submarine sank the Arabic or not, especially as the ship was not warned. After reading all dispatches, officials with whom I talked doubted if a German torpedo put the boat to the bottom, and I talked with a captain in close touch with the American situation, who had just been promoted to commander of a big ship. It will be eight to fourteen days before the submarines report, and until then we have no official information. From the reports of the English, Dutch and Scandinavian press it is not certain that a submarine sank the Arabic. No one saw a submarine, although the captain of the Arabic said he saw a torpedo three hundred feet away, which is improbable.

NOTE.—This dispatch is the first intimation that Germany may deny having sunk the Arabic.

Tumulty Says Actions Determined Attorney General Says Not So

(By United Press)

Washington, Aug. 23.—Secretary Tumulty, following a presidential conference, stated that good facts bearing on the Arabic affair had been ascertained and the course of action determined on. This is interpreted to mean that the administration mind is made up. An unwarned submarine attack destroyed the Arabic.

Washington, Aug. 23.—Attorney General Gregory, following a presidential conference stated that the cabinet had not discussed what action would be taken in the Arabic affair, and that no conclusion had been reached.

ARABIC WAS UNARMED

London, Aug. 23.—The foreign offices in their official statement of the Arabic disaster said she neither attempted to escape nor ram the submarine and that the Arabic was an unarmed passenger ship outbound for a neutral port, and that the Dunsley was a peaceful merchantman and not a convoy.

GERMANS CAPTURE OSSWATZ

Destroy Ten Other Teuton Warships in Naval Battle.

London, Aug. 23.—A dispatch to the Central News from Petrograd says:

"The president of the duma has announced that the Germans lost the battle cruiser Moltke, three cruisers and seven torpedo boats in the Riga battle."

"The announcement of the president of the duma as sent by the correspondent was:

"In the Riga battle the Germans lost one superdreadnaught, the Moltke, three cruisers and seven torpedo boats."

"The German fleet has withdrawn from Riga bay."

"The Germans tried to make a descent near Pernpin (Pernigal, on the east shore of the Gulf of Riga, some thirty-five miles north of Riga). Four barges, crammed with soldiers, took part in the descent. They were repulsed by the Russian troops without the co-operation of artillery, the Germans being exterminated and the barges captured."

The German battle cruiser Moltke was a vessel of 23,000 tons and carried in ordinary times a complement of 1,107 men. It was a sister ship of the famous Goeben, which became a part of the Turkish navy after the commencement of the war and was rechristened Sultan Selim.

The Moltke was 550 feet long and was armed with ten 11-inch guns and twelve six-inch guns and twelve 24-pounders. In addition its armament included four 29-inch torpedo tubes. It was built in 1911 and had a speed of about twenty-eight knots.

The Moltke was in the battle with the British fleet in the North sea last January, when the German armored cruiser Bluecher was sunk. In 1912 the Moltke was in the German squadron which visited the United States to return the visit of the United States battleship squadron at Kiel during its trip around the world. The cost of the Moltke was about $12,000,000.

Oyster Bay, N. Y., Aug. 23.—The time for words on the part of the United States has passed and the time for deeds has come, is former President Theodore Roosevelt's comment on the sinking of the British liner Arabic with a loss of American lives. In a statement issued the colonel says:

"The time for words on the part of this nation has long passed and it is inconceivable to American citizens who claim to be inheritors of the traditions of Washington and Lincoln that our government representatives shall not see that the time for deeds has come."

The crew of the Windsor was saved, but five men of the Dawson's crew were lost.

In Spite of a Patched up Lineup Brainerd is Victorious Over the Chesty Team

BOWMAN STRUCK OUT 13 MEN

His Team Wasn't There With Proper Support—Victor Pitched Well and Got Two-Bagger

In spite of a patched up Brainerd team combatting weird decisions of a Pine River umpire, Brainerd beat Pine River 3 to 1 Sunday afternoon, a large crowd witnessing the game and occasionally feeling mad enough at the umpire's decisions to quit and go home.

Bowman, of Pine River, pitched for his home town. He worked hard enough, striking out 13 Brainerd batters, and some of them the best batters on the team. But when Bowman needed support, like the grass widow who wanted alimony, there was nobody around.

Victor starred at bat with a twobagger and he brought in two runs himself. In the first inning Eric-son went out second to first. Victor landed the first hit of the game into deep center. Tanner's liner was bobbled by Third Baseman Wisner.
Templeton lined one near third and Victor shot for home and the box of Tampa Sweeps cigars, a prize given by the Brainerd Grocery Co. to the first Brainerd player to come in with a run.

In the fourth inning Templeton secured a two-bagger and later scored.
In the sixth Victor got a two-bagger and later made third. Tanner pasted one near the shortstop. The second baseman got the ball and threw wild and Tanner was safe on first and Victor got home. Templeton fanned. Benda hit the ball into left field and Tanner ran from third, then back to the base and waited till the ball went plump into the left fielder's mitt on the inside of the foul line and on fair ball territory, then sprinted for home and beat the ball six feet.

"Out," said the umpire, one Art Glover, who has been dubbed professor of everything. There was a near riot. At last after a lengthy discussion Prof. Glover stroked his chin and like a judge sitting on a bench and deciding a case after several days' deliberation he said that Benda's drive was a foul and so they put Tanner back on third base.

In the ninth inning Andrews lined a ball six feet outside the foul line and it stuck in the grass. Bush picked it up, held up the ball to mark the location for the ump.
Prof. Glover, and the ump said, first seeing if the Pine River runner had made first, "Fair ball." He claimed the ball had struck inside the fair ball line and then bounded into foul territory, but that decision was disputed by the whole grandstand.

Brainerd gave in to all the weird decisions made and still beat the Pine River aggregation.

Time 1 hour 50 minutes. Umpire of Pine River. Scorer, Zimmer.

NOTES OF THE GAME

Tanner's nose bled during part of the game. "Pine River has drawn the first blood," said one of the fans.
When the run-getting on the part of Brainerd had simmered down, the fans called to W. H. Cleary to put up another box of Tampas.

In the third inning the Pine River first baseman bobbled the ball and Prof. Glover said "Safe." And for that he should be given due credit and a score marked down among the good decisions.

In the fourth inning the catcher threw over third and Templeton scored. Kyllo called Benda out, but the latter was safe on first.

A pretty double play was made by Brainerd in the eighth inning. Coppers lined the ball to first. Victor grabbed it, threw to Swede Erickson cutting off Bowman and Swede tossed it to first beating out the runner.

In the eighth Andrews drew Victor's ride throw to second and Benda covered the bag and chased down Andrews.

Some of Prof. Glover's decisions were as wonderful and one-sided as his trousers which were retained by a suspender-hold on one button in the rear.

Cook was not on first base. He was out at Long Prairie where he pitched and beat Osakis 2 to 1. Cook allowed but 4 hits and struck out 14 men. The one run Osakis got was acquired on a fluke. The umpire called the runner safe, although he was out by five feet. Later this

DANES AND IRISH PICNIC TOGETHER

Old History States the Danes Invaded Ireland Centuries Ago and Got Irish Fighting Mad

ALL FORGOTTEN AT LUM PARK

Ancient Order of Hibernians and Danish Brotherhood Run Foot Races Together

The Danes and the Irish at one time were bitter enemies and would fight at the drop of the hat, but that was forgotten at Lum park Sunday afternoon when the Ancient Order of Hibernians and the Danish Brotherhood had picnics and the doings of each interlapped and made it a joint picnic.

Old Irish History

In the latter part of the eighth century says Anna M. Nolan in her "History of Ireland," the Danes, or Norsemen, began a series of depredations on Ireland which lasted for two centuries.

Swooping down upon some defenseless coast-town, they would seize and carry off everything portable, and before the surprised inhabitants awoke to the realization of their visits, they would depart as suddenly as they had come.

In the Battle of Clontarf the Irish under Brian broke the strength of the Danes and drove them to their ships and out of Ireland.

So much for ancient history. All the ancient touchiness had been eradicated. There were foot races and the Danes and the Irish competed. In the running high jump M. J. Reis got first and Father John Cream second. This was history repeating the incident at the Battle of Clontarf when the Irish chased the Danes, the Danes making shore first and hopping away on their boats.

J. J. Nolan was master of ceremonies and was successful at it too. Both organizations enjoyed the delights of picnicking, launch riding, foot races, high and broad jumps and listened to an eloquent oration on the history, aims and accomplishments of the Ancient Order of Hibernians delivered by Rev. Father J. J. O'Mahoney, rector of St. Francis Catholic church.

The Danes had a tug of war between the married women and the single women and it's not settled yet.

Tommy Long's steamboat carried the Danish Brotherhood around the lake and Tom Mooney's launch carried the Hibernians.

EDITOR ACCUSED RUNNING LOTTERY

Thief River Falls, Minn., Aug. 21.—Thomas H. Smith of this city, editor of the Times, is being prosecuted here on a complaint signed by Martin Williams, which charges that the newspaper man has violated the state law which prohibits lotteries. It is charged that on June 24 Smith advertised to give an automobile as first prize and a piano as second to the persons obtaining the most subscribers for his paper.

The editor appeared in court and was granted a continuance until this week, when, upon stipulation, the case was appealed directly to the district court, which will not sit here until January.

Smith contends that the fact that he is giving a commission on every subscription turned in releases him from any responsibility under the lottery law. Holding this view, he continues to advertise the contest.

EDWIN J. CREED CALLED

Lived at Chicago in Early Fifties When It Was Still Called Fort Dearborn

Edwin J. Creed, who for the past twenty years has been a resident of Brainerd, passed away at his home on Saturday night. For the last three years he has been an invalid, never rising from his bed during that time. Mr. Creed was born at Norwich, England in 1830 and went to sea at fourteen. An accident left him in New York City some years later, and he came to Chicago in the early '50's, when it was still Fort Dearborn. Here he was apprenticed to a coach and carriage firm, where he learned the trade of painter, and afterwards removed to Amboy, Illinois. Here he married Mary Whitford. Of the five children only one, Miss Jessie Creed of this city, survives him, his wife having preceded him in 1902.

Mr. Creed has worked in Brainerd for the past twenty-eight years, and his home has been here since 1900. His daughter Jessie has been his constant attendant during his illness and is the only survivor of the family.

The funeral services will be from the Whitney undertaking parlors on Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 P. M., Rev. C. H. S. Koch officiating.

We tender our sympathy to the bereaved daughter and friends of an old citizen.

Coming Down All Right.

"Is my hair coming down, Katie?" asked the lady with her hand to her head.

"Yes, ma'am," replied the girl. "I'm going right upstairs to get it now."—Yonkers Statesman.

ROWLEY MINE IS CHRISTENED

Mining and Business Men of Duluth, Superior, Hibbing, Virginia, Barrows and Brainerd There

LUNCHEON, BAND, SPEECHES

Panoramic Pictures Taken of Special Train and Crowd at the Mine Near Town of Barrows

In the presence of mining and business men from Duluth, Superior, Hibbing, Virginia, Barrows and Brainerd the new Rowley mine of the Barrows Mining company at Barrows was so christened, little Olive Martell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward E. Martell, of New Duluth, breaking a bottle of spring water on the sides of the 29,000 pound steel "shoe" built by the National Iron Works of Duluth.

A special train, all Northern Pacific steel coaches, conveyed the excursionists from Duluth. Banners on its sides proclaimed the "Barrows Mining Company Special." The Brainerd City band played and luncheon was served in the grove near the mine.

Speeches were made. John J. Moe of Duluth, said Sunday was an appropriate day to christen babies or mines. They had decided on the name Rowley mine because their superintendent, C. B. Rowley, of Brainerd, had invented a process of sinking shafts which would revolutionize development work and be utilized at this mine.

Superintendent Rowley explained his method of shaft sinking, believed to be the best idea for a drop shaft. He called attention to the twenty-nine drill holes on the property and spoke of the large ore body developed situated close to the town of Barrows.

John A. Hoffbauer, of Brainerd, called attention to the Duluth men backing the enterprise, John J. Moe, John Wahl, Charles P. Meyers and S. Momb, and C. B. Rowley of Brainerd. He mentioned the close relation, financially and physically between the Mesaba and Cuyuna iron ranges. He had been on many special trains, but this was the first which carried buttermilk and treated its guests liberally with that thirst quencher.

The engine, derrick, direct hoist, swing drum and boom drum are erected, the blacksmith and carpenter shop built and cement and other material is on the ground. The first shovel of dirt was thrown out by John J. Moe, the second by Charles P. Meyers and John Wahl threw out two for good measure.

The town of Barrows furnished the lunch and music. The ball game between Twin Oaks and Barrows was won by Barrows 8 to 7.

BIG BROOK TROUT

Speckled Beauty Weighing 2 1/4 Pounds Caught by Veteran Fisherman, O. H. Johnson

Some men are born rich, others acquire riches and many go through 90 years of life never feeling the thrill of that rich experience of landing a fighting brook trout weighing 2 1/4 pounds.

To O. H. Johnson, genial proprietor of the Ransford hotel, comes that thrill in life only comparable to a man receiving news that twins have arrived, and that is the thrill of landing a pugnacious whale of a speckled brook trout actually weighing 2 1/4 pounds, and with that levitation he also caught a half dozen smaller fry.

The scene of this fishing exploit was near Brainerd, but its whereabouts will not be revealed by Mr. Johnson, who does not care to have a stampede of fishermen swamp the spot. The shore is heavily wooded and the brush of so primitive a nature that it was impossible to use a reel. Mr. Johnson spotted his fish and hooked Mr. Trout. The speckled fellow made a lunge for deep water and Mr. Johnson threw his weight on the line and after moments of doubt and despair, for if that fish was lost no one would ever believe it had been such a big one, Mr. Trout was landed by main strength and awkwardness.

Think of its size! Sixteen inches long. The length of the average trout is but 7 to 10 inches. "Today Mr. Johnson has the fish in the ice box and he is rent with despair as he wrestles with the question, 'Shall I eat him or shall I have him stuffed and preserved so that future generations can take a look at him and believe my story?'"

It's a question whether Mr. Trout shall be a historical reference in the lobby of the hotel next to the stuffed mummelunge and the big pike or whether he shall grace a dinner table. What would you do, fair reader?

Hope.

Hope inspires courage. It is the music of life, the anchor of the soul and the forerunner of success.

LETTERS THREATEN GOVERNOR HARRIS

Seven Autos Were Used in Trip to Lynch Frank.

Atlanta, Ga., Aug. 23.—The first actual story of all that transpired during the death ride of Leo M. Frank from Milledgeville to Marietta between midnight and dawn last Tuesday morning became available. The recital came in a manner which seemingly placed its authenticity beyond all question. The narrator, however, will not be a witness before the Cobb county grand jury, which on Sept. 1 will be asked to undertake a thorough investigation of the lynching.

It also became known that Governor Nat E. Harris, during the past few days, has received several anonymous letters, purporting to warn him not to go "too far" in his investigation of the lynching. The governor is not inclined to take the letters at all seriously, but looks upon them as the outgrowth of the disturbed sentiment of the moment.

The "inside story" of the events which preceded the finding of Frank's body cleared up many phases of the incident which heretofore have been veiled in mystery.

Seven automobiles were required to transport the "vigilance committee" from Marietta to Milledgeville. Only four returned, including the car in which Frank rode. There were probably twenty-eight men in the lynching party.

Athens is celebrating Venizelos's return to power. Venizelos also will take charge of the ministry of foreign affairs.

The general staff has discussed with King Victor Emmanuel the plan of the new campaign against Turkey.

The Gravy, Not the Meat.

I was speaking to a friend on the question of eating less meat. Said he: "It's not the meat itself I should miss if I gave it up, but the gravy." And there, I believe, lies the chief barrier to vegetarianism with many. One of the great advocates of a non-meat diet in the early nineteenth century was Sir Richard Phillips, whose eloquent writings on the subject were suddenly discounted by the revelation that although he would eat no meat, Sir Richard was guilty of gravy over his potatoes.—London Chronicle.

EVINCED RARE POETIC TALENT

Little Evelyn Belden, Drowned in Rice Lake, was a "Little Mother" to Brothers and Sisters

A CHEERFUL, LOVABLE CHILD

Photograph Printed Shows Evelyn as a Baby in 1903—The Little Presents made by Evelyn Evelyn Amanda Belden, the victim of a drowning accident at Rice Lake, Monday, August 9th, was born at Appleton, Minn., on February 3, 1902. She was a sweet lovable child from babyhood up to young girlhood, the favorite grand child, the promising niece of many aunts and uncles, a little mother heart sent to cheer her many little sisters and brother. She was their guardian angel and as a last token of brotherly love, Clyde, a young artist soul, drew a rough sketch of an angel ascending with several smaller ones following and placed it in her coffin. Plans had been made for a visit all summer with her dear grandma, she loved so well, but it was delayed time and again, but she went to Heaven instead.

Among her treasures were found a hand bag made for a girl cousin and motto for an aunt, which will be sent them. God's will, not ours, Evelyn leaves a father, mother, five sisters, a brother, an aunt, Mrs. Richard Ebinger all residing in Brainerd.

Evelyn A. Belden as a Baby

The little girl evinced poetic talent as these verses composed by her give evidence:

THE COMING OF MAY
The coming of May brings joy and gladness,
The bright flowers by the roadside Cheer us and banish our sadness.
The children are shouting and laughing for joy,
For the time of marbles and ball has come
And glad is every boy.

The girls are gathering flowers,
Anemones, crocuses and violets,
Made bright and fresh by recent showers.
The birds are flying through the sky,
Calling and chirping one and all,
Singing and twittering as they fly.
All the trees are bright and green
The leaves are trembling in the breeze,
And among their branches the robins nests are seen.
Everything is bright and gay
Birds are singing, flowers are springing,
Welcome is the month of May.

IN THE AUTUMN
When the trees are decked in red and yellow
And the birds have southward flown,
Busy is the farmer gathering apples mellow.
Nuts are in the attic, corn is in the bin,
The bountiful harvest is gathered,
And everything is in.

MERAMEC RIVER RAGING TORRENT

Number of Persons Perish Near St. Louis.

PLEASURE RESORTS SUFFER

Flooded Area Is Estimated at One Hundred Square Miles—Railways Are Washed Out and Telegraph and Telephone Wires Are Almost All Down.

St. Louis, Aug. 23.—Eight persons are reported drowned, scores are missing, hundreds of pleasure resorts—club houses and summer cottages—were swept away and the greater part of St. Louis county was flooded through the rising of the Meramec river, which, normally a brooklet, now is a raging torrent and in places is miles out of its banks.

The number of lives lost in St. Louis county as the result of the flood which followed the recent rain storm here had increased to twenty, it is reported.

The Meramec began rising at the rate of a foot an hour. Hundreds of persons had been marooned in club houses and cottages along the river by the first rise several days ago, following a forty-hour rainfall, and hundreds of others had gone to the river hoping it would recede and permit them to rescue relatives and friends and to procure their water soaked possessions.

Six persons were said to have been drowned at Valley Park and two at Meramec Highlands, but details were not available. Many other persons were missing and it is feared that the death list may aggregate several score persons.

Approximately 9,000 feet of track on the St. Louis and San Francisco railroad near Monette, Mo., were washed out by the Meramec.

Unconfirmed reports say that every building on either side of the river, from Alton to Pacific, a distance of thirty-five miles, has been carried away by the flood. In Valley Park alone 2,000 families have been made homeless. The water in this city is ten to twelve feet deep in the streets.

The flooded area is estimated at 100 square miles. Telephone and telegraph wires to almost all towns in this district are down.

GERMANY SHORT OF MEAT

Allowance to Civil Population May Be Reduced.

Washington, Aug. 23.—Germany is facing the necessity of reducing the meat consumption of her civil population by 40 or 50 per cent, according to a report compiled by the American Association of Commerce and Trade in Berlin and received at the department of commerce. On the other hand, the report says, the bread card system, operated by the government since the war began, has resulted in a surplus of wheat and rye flour which will make possible an increase in the bread allowance during the coming year.

Introduction of a meat card scheme to restrict consumption and at the same time insure reasonable prices to the masses is forecast by the association.

SUBMITS THREE REPORTS

Findings of Industrial Commission Are Made Public.

Chicago, Aug. 23.—Summaries of the reports of the United States commission on industrial relations were made public here. The recommendations will be made to congress.

The commission, which ceases to exist, was composed of three representatives each of the employers, the employed and the general public. It became apparent some time ago that they would be unable to agree on a single report and it is said that none of the reports given out can properly be called a "majority" report.

The personnel of the commission follows: Frank P. Walsh, Missouri, chairman; John R. Commons, Wisconsin, and Mrs. J. Borden Harriman, representing the public; R. H. Ashton, Illinois; Harris Weinstein, California, and S. Thurston Ballard, Kentucky, representing the employers; and John B. Lennon, Illinois; James O'Connell, District of Columbia, and A. B. Garretson, Iowa, representing the employees.

$250,000 LOSS IN CYCLONE

Principal Buildings Unroofed or Demolished at Hanover, Pa.

York, Pa., Aug. 23.—Estimates place at $250,000 the damage done by the cyclone which cut a path through the borough of Hanover, eighteen miles southwest of York. The heart of the town of 10,000 inhabitants was a scene of wreckage, with the principal buildings unroofed or demolished.

Although a number of persons were hurt by flying bricks and timbers no loss of life was reported.

NO MILITARY IMPORTANCE ATTACHES

By J. W. T. Mason, for United Press

The capture of Novo Georgiewsk by the Germans is without any military importance. The fortress was quite useless to the Russians after the evacuation of the Vistula line. It is probable the only reason the garrison did not retreat from the Vistula with the main Slav forces was because the Teutons had blocked the direction of retreat. The announcement from Petrograd following the evacuation of Warsaw that Novo Georgiewsk was being retained as long as possible to delay the Germans was not based on facts. Novo Georgiewsk is about 20 miles northwest of Warsaw and commands only a single line of railway running between East Prussia and Warsaw. It is in no sense a railway fortress as was Maubeuge, to which the French clung during the Paris retreat one year ago. By sacrificing a garrison of about 40,000 men, who eventually had to surrender, the French retained Maubeuge long enough to disarrange seriously the supplies which the Germans needed during the rush for the Seine. There was no similar reason why the Slavs should have held fast Novo Georgiewsk as an isolated fortress. The Novo Georgiewsk positions were constructed to prevent a flank attack being delivered against Warsaw. When Warsaw fell Novo Georgiewsk became useless. The Germans have not been delayed in any respect because of Novo Georgiewsk's defiance. All roads needful for the pursuit of the Slavs have been kept open, and the investing force could well be spared temporarily to make permanent prisoners of the Russian garrison. Whatever be the strength of the army defending Novo Georgiewsk, Russia has lost gratuitously by just that number, a trained unit the czar can ill afford to spare. Novo Georgiewsk's fall, with the garrison inside the walls and compelled to surrender, is the first indication of recklessness in retreat which the Slavs generalissimo has shown.

Cotton Market Opened Steady

New York, Aug. 23.—The cotton market opened steady with indications that the British and French action in declaring contraband had been discounted.

BALKAN STATES WAVERING

Roumania, Bulgaria and Greece May Attack Turkey.

London, Aug. 23.—Italy's declaration of war against Turkey is expected to have an almost immediate effect on the Balkan states, which are still debating which will take part in the conflict.

The relations between Italy and Roumania for years have been intimate and the opinion is expressed that it is probable, in view of the threatening attitude of the Germanic powers toward Roumania because of her refusal to allow ammunition to pass through her territory, that now Italy has broken relations with Turkey, Roumania will join the quadruple entente.

Bulgaria is still waiting for the reply of Serbia to the suggestions that Serbia cede Macedonia to Bulgaria. Greece is likely to declare her policy when the chamber meets this week.

COUPLE KILLED ON TOUR

Auto Skids Over Embankment Near Decorah, Ia.

Minneapolis, Aug. 23.—Mrs. W. C. Hobart, wife of W. C. Hobart, Minneapolis, was instantly killed near Decorah, Ia., when an automobile in which she and her husband were riding skidded over an embankment and the brake drive shaft pierced her body. Mr. Hobart, caught under the machine, died before aid could be brought to lift the car.

Mr. and Mrs. Hobart left Minneapolis Saturday night for a ten-day automobile tour through Iowa, Illinois and Wisconsin.

Mr. Hobart, fifty-seven years, old, a prominent Elk, was born in North Amherst, Mass., and since coming to Minneapolis in 1888 had been a member of the firm of Hobart & Willis.

MUSIC AND DRAMA

At the Grand

The story of this Gustave Frohman production is sure to appeal to every person in the audience. The principal actors, Mary Miles Minter (known the country over as "The Little Rebel"), Percy Helton (the boy of "Peter Grimm" fame), and Will Archie (whom everyone knows), will delight the children with their pathos and humor while the grown-ups will be gripped by the splendid acting and the interest of the plot, based upon events brought about by the sudden outbreak of the present European war, which in brief is as follows:

Major Drayton, of the British Army, receives a cablegram which necessitates his return to London. As he will be gone but a few weeks, his lawyer suggests that he leave Viola in his care.

Viola is not happy in Lawyer Nevinson's household and is therefore dismayed when at the outbreak of the war abroad, her father writes that he has been ordered to the front. The news of Major Drayton's death causes the Nevinson's attitude to change. A sum of money entrusted to Nevinson for Viola's care has been lost by him in speculation, and Viola is looked upon as a burden and treated harshly, becoming the household drudge.

Goaded beyond endurance, she turns away, drifts into a theatre and becomes a fairy in a Christmas production. At the dress rehearsals she falls from a cloud which was bearing her skyward. She is not injured, but is so berated by the stage manager, that she rushes out into the night in her fairy costume and disappears. This is how it comes to pass that The Wolf, a wretched little urchin whose only shelter is an old barrel in a lonely alley, is sure that "the Christmas Angel" has come down to him when he is aroused from his Christmas Eve sleep by Viola dashing headlong into his barrel, seeking to hide from a pursuing dog.

Despite the gathering clouds, the threads of the story are woven together into a happy ending.

Bridgeport, Conn., Aug. 22.—Four strikes are in progress here. To secure an eight-hour day, 400 girls and 100 men have struck at the Bryant Electric company. At the Star Shirt company 500 girls have walked out. Forty buffers at the Holmes & Edwards company are on strike. Over 200 employees of the Electric Cable company also decline to work because the company refused to make some adjustment of shop conditions after granting an eight-hour day.

Cool in summer—warm in winter

The General Says:

Neither the hot winds of summer nor the cold blasts of winter can penetrate our roofing or wall board. Roofs covered with wood shingles, slate, or tile, need one or more layers of our insulating materials under them to keep the building cool in summer and warm in winter.

The use of wall board as an improvement over lath and plaster is becoming universal. Being a non-conductor of heat, it saves fuel in cold weather and keeps out the hot winds and heat of the summer. The great service and very low cost of our materials have led to their enormous use everywhere.
